The acceptance of five known Communists¹ on the Executive Committee of the National Federation of Tobacco Workers (NFTW) was forced on Eusebio MUJAL, secretary general of the non-Communist Confederacion de Trabajadores de Cuba (CTC), by direct pressure from Fulgencio BATISTA, President of Cuba.

1. [REDACTED] Comment. The five Communists, Gonzalo COLLADO, Faustino CALCINES, Inaudi KINDELAN, Diego LEON, and Agustin PEREZ, were among those elected at the 6th National Congress to the NFTW Executive Committee, which is composed of 75 members, including some 40 alternates. Many others elected are crypto-Communists disguised as members of the Partido Accion Progresista (PAP, BATISTA's Party).
